"WHEN THE MOUNTAIN CALLS: NEPAL, TIBET & BHUTAN," directed by Emmy-Award winning Maui filmmaker Tom Vendetti which he produced with Robert C. Stone (also a Maui filmmaker), will have its World Premiere at the Maui Arts & Cultural Center's Castle Theater on Saturday, November 5 at 7:00 pm. Dr. Vendetti won the Emmy for his feature documentary "Bhutan: Taking the Middle Path to Happiness" that aired nationally on PBS and had its World Premiere at the MACC in late 2007.

Rick Chatenever wrote the script to "When the Mountain Calls" with Kris Kristofferson presenting the film's on-camera prologue and epilogue. Soundtrack is by Grammy Award-winner Paul Horn and Emmy Award-winner Christopher Hedge. Narration is by Ann Mortifee.

Tickets for "When the Mountain Calls" and "In Love with the Mystery" are $25.00 per person and may be purchased in advance at the Maui Arts & Cultural Center Box-office or online at www.mauiarts.org. Please bring your ticket for admission to the performance as there will be no door list. Seating is open and is not reserved. Refunds are not available for this event.

"When the Mountain Calls" explores the director/producer's personal experiences and reflections from over 30 years of traveling through the Himalayas – a journey discovering the meaning and sources of happiness in unexpected places, and the changes over the decades to the people, land, climate and culture. Featured in the film are appearances by the Dalai Lama, Lama Tenzin, Paul Horn, Tenzing Norgay, Sir Edmond Hillary, the Prime Minister of Bhutan, Dorjee Sherpa and Green Peace China.

Preceding the premiere screening of "When the Mountain Calls," author Ann Mortifee and Grammy Award-winning and world-renowned musician Paul Horn take the audience on a narrative and musical journey of verse, voice and flute. Ms. Mortifee will read and perform passages from her new book, "IN LOVE WITH THE MYSTERY" accompanied by Paul's beautifully uplifting music.

"It is never too late to begin anew," says the best-selling author. "We must allow our self to be forever recreated. In fact, this is the only way to live the spiritual life. Fall in love with the Mystery. Let it speak from every created thing in every created moment."

"Ann and Paul's performance is a wonderful complement and companion piece to "When the Mountain Calls," says Tom Vendetti, "as both deal with the mystery and wonders of life, and ultimately are a celebration of the human spirit."
